UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: Ryan D. Gibbs v. Comm'r Soc. Sec.
20 Civ. 5595 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

Pursuant to the schedule in the above-referenced Social Security case, the administrative record is due on October 21, 2020. We write respectfully to request that the time to file the record be extended for 60 days, until December 21, 2020. The reason for this request is the Social Security Administration needs more time to prepare the record due to telecommuting and other workplace changes in response to the pandemic.

We attempted to obtain the consent of plaintiff, who is proceeding pro se, to this proposed adjournment. We did not receive a response to our inquiry directly from plaintiff, but received an email from Shazardi Gaddy, a case manager for plaintiff at HelpUSA, who stated that plaintiff agreed to the proposed adjournment. Ms. Gaddy also stated that she could relay messages to plaintiff.

No prior adjournment has been requested in this case. We appreciate the Court's consideration of this request.

Respectfully,

AUDREY STRAUSS
Acting United States Attorney
